It is located in a small building built in 2003, in the Port Empordà area of Empuriabrava. The building overlooks the canal where it is easy to find a mooring space for rent or sale. The apartment is on the first floor (it has an elevator). Open kitchen in the living-dining room, leading to a south-west facing terrace. It is very luminous. It is completed with two double bedrooms and a complete bathroom. Also a private parking space in the basement of the building.
