 5515 m²

This beautiful rustic plot of 5,515 m² is located in the charming town of Palau Saverdera, surrounded by impressive natural landscapes. This property for agricultural use is a real refuge for those looking for disconnection in a quiet and natural environment. The plot has water from a natural vein, which ensures a sustainable water source for crops and vegetation. In addition, the property is home to more than 80 olive trees, whose branches and leaves provide a sense of peace and harmony with the environment. There are also fruit trees and an orchard, allowing the production of fresh and healthy fruits and vegetables. In this rustic plot it is possible to enjoy a life in contact with nature, breathe fresh air and contemplate beautiful views of the mountains and countryside. Here, time seems to stand still and life flows at a slower pace.
